

Procedure for the Flirt Coaching Package

After purchasing your IMPROVEMYPROFILE package, you will receive three emails. Among others, an order confirmation, an invoice email & a download files email with this schedule and interview sheets.

After that we ask you to follow the steps below:

1. WE WANT TO GET TO KNOW YOU

Fill out our interview forms about your preferences, interests, hobbies and what you want from a partner and send it back to documents@improvemyprofile.com, so that we can get a better and more intensive picture of you in a timely manner. At the same time, we ask you to send us suggestions for dates and times when coaching would be possible at your place to coaching@improvemyprofile.de. If you have booked three coaching sessions, we ask for different and consecutive date suggestions. We can also arrange two hours in a row. We do not recommend three coaching sessions in a row, as experience has shown that attention tends to be weakened. You are also welcome to prepare for the coaching sessions in parallel by writing down your questions or suggestions in advance.

2. BECOME THE STAR OF THE ONLINE DATING SCENE

Once you have submitted your interview forms to us and we have evaluated your proposed appointments, you will receive an email with appointment confirmations and information about who your coach/trainer will be. Then you enjoy your sessions and it's learn, learn, learn.

ARE YOU READY FOR THE BIG SHOW?

Now is the time, you are more relaxed than ever and the magic can work. Let things come to you and enjoy the great attention you easily manage on the side. Believe it, your great online dating love is waiting for you.
