

Procedure for the VIP PACKAGE - EXPERT

After purchasing your IMPROVEMYPROFILE package, you will receive a welcome email with our questionnaires, your invoice, this process brochure, and two handouts on "The Right Photo" & "10 Tips for a Successful First Message".

After that, we ask you to follow the steps below:

1. WE WANT TO GET TO KNOW YOU

Fill out our simple questionnaire about your preferences, interests, hobbies and what you want in a partner and send it back to us. This confidential questionnaire gives us exactly the information we need to create a successful, attention-grabbing profile tailored to your ideal partner.

Please let us know which online platform(s) you are a customer of, so that we can adjust the profile with the required information accordingly. If you are not registered with any dating platform, no problem - we will simply create a universal profile for you, which you can definitely use on almost all platforms. It would only be good to know whether it is a dating app or a dating website in the future, as the character count is different here in each case. Afterwards, please send us a separate screenshot of your image selection or upload your image files in your customer account (reduce your number of images to twenty), which you use or want to use on the dating portal. This way we can recommend the three photos that show you from your best side. You are also welcomed to send us your pictures to pictures@improvemyprofile.de and the documents to documents@improvemyprofile.de, thank you.

In addition, you will receive three opening messages to the partner of your choice in this premium package. Therefore, we need a screenshot or excerpt of the respective profile of the online dating user, so that we can tailor the messages to their profile.

At the same time, it would be great if you could send an email to coaching@improvemyprofile.de with three dates when personal dating coaching would be possible for you, so that we could also include this information in your master profile.

2. YOUR ONLINE PROFILE BECOMES AN ONLINE DATING STAR AND YOU BECOME A FLIRT MASTER

Within ten business days, we'll send you your brand-new profile, which is now tailored specifically to you, your personality and, of course, your ideal partner. The make-over profile that will make you shine like a star. Thanks to your personality!

Also, we will suggest you the five best pictures that you should use for your online presence to be able to assert yourself even better in the limelight of the dating stage. After that, we will take three photos of our choice and transform them with the help of small editing tricks into a new unique piece of your dating photo profile collection.

At the same time, we also create the opening messages for your perfect flirt initiation. At the same time, you will be informed via email when we will hold a one-to-one coaching session together in order to boost your personal dating market value even more.

3. UPLOAD NOW, WRITE TO AND ARRANGE ONLINE DATES!

Just copy your new profile (and your newfound confidence) and let your new dating profile inspire and impress you. At the same time, write to the people you got your opening salutation for. Then it's relax and wait. From now on it's no longer IMPROVEMYPROFILE, but WAITFORDATES. Your big online love is surely already waiting.
